

Introduction: This unit explores the early history of the United States, from the first European explorations to the establishment of the first colonies. It covers the period from 1492 to 1700.

Objectives:

- Understand the early European explorations of North America.
- Identify the major colonial powers and their territories.
- Explain the reasons for European colonization.

Key Dates:

- 1492: Christopher Columbus discovers North America.
- 1607: First permanent English settlement in Jamestown, Virginia.
- 1620: Pilgrims arrive in Plymouth, Massachusetts.

Key Figures:

- Christopher Columbus
- John Smith
- William Bradford

Key Concepts:

- Colonization
- Exploration
- Settlement

Conclusion: The early history of the United States is a story of exploration, discovery, and settlement. It sets the stage for the development of the nation as we know it today.