

4.1.4.1.1

1. The first step is to identify the components of the assembly. This is done by looking at the exploded view and identifying the parts that are shown in the diagram.

2. The next step is to determine the order of assembly. This is done by looking at the exploded view and identifying the parts that are shown in the diagram.

3. The final step is to assemble the components. This is done by following the order of assembly and putting the parts together.

4. The final step is to assemble the components. This is done by following the order of assembly and putting the parts together.

5. The final step is to assemble the components. This is done by following the order of assembly and putting the parts together.